THREE GAMES TO AIR ON AIA365.COM
SEPTEMBER 17 & 18, 2009

PHOENIX, AZ (Sept. 16, 2009) – After broadcasting two games a week over the first two weeks, three games are set to go live this week on AIA365.com, presented by Grand Canyon University.

On Thursday, Sept. 17, Saint Mary's hosts Millennium at 7 p.m. live on AIA365.com from Phoenix College. Millennium enters the game with a record of two wins and one loss, having defeated Dobson the week prior 38-13. Saint Mary's enters the game with one win and two losses, fresh off a loss to Brophy Prep.

Two games will be showcased Friday, Sept. 18, including Paradise Valley at Notre Dame from Scottsdale Community College at 7 p.m. The game will be live on AIA365.com. Paradise Valley and Notre Dame both enter the game with two wins and no losses.

Also at 7 p.m. on Friday, Liberty will host Glendale on AIA365.com and on the Fan AM 1060. Glendale has won its last two games to improve to two wins and one loss, and Liberty has started strong winning its first three opening games of the 2009 campaign.

AIA365.com made its second debut on August 22, 2009, with the broadcast of the 4th Annual Sollenberger Classic between Peoria Centennial and Reno McQueen. The site registered over 3,000 users, including over 10,000 page views, on its initial launch date. Each and every day AIA365.com is adding a new video to build its library, starting with fall sports championships and working towards the winter sports championships.
